Recreation Program

The Recreation Program started Monday, under the sponsorship of the local P.T.A.Y. Club. The first day saw a large turn-out of around 80 boys to play in the Little League and the Babe Ruth League. Due to the large number, the high school field is being used for the Little League and the Town Ball Park for the Babe Ruth League.

There are four teams in the Little League. Marvin House manages the Yankees; Bobbie Whitehead the Indians; Billy Allen Burke the Braves, and Freddie Johnson the White Sox. A league standing and list of the team members will appear in next week's issue.

The Swimming Program has been postponed until Monday, June 20. Coach Gordon Bragg advises that the program will run for 2 weeks, in the afternoons, beginning at 2:00 for beginners; 3 for intermediates, and 4 for swimmers. The junior and senior life saving class will be taught beginning at 3 P. M. and running to 5:00. The swimming program was postponed because of cold weather.

Following the three weeks of baseball and swimming, there will be a two week period of basketball for boys and girls.

WRESTLING BOUTS ON SATURDAY NIGHT

Lynchburg, June 16.- They'll try again on Saturday night to find an undisputed winner of the Gorgeous George - Wild Red Berry wrestling match when the two men repeat last week's feature match performance at the City Armory here.

Depending on whose word you take—referee Lucky Roberts—the little man who wasn't there while the important festivities were going on—or promoter Charlie Laye — you could say either man won last Saturday's match.

Berry evened the match at a fall apiece and then went to work on George with a vengeance. His first "slingshot" sent the big blonde sailing through the air to the mat. On the second one, George went up but came down atop referee Lucky Roberts, knocking that illustrious gentleman from the ring where he lay on the floor. As Roberts lay there Berry fell atop George and had him pinned for a matter of minutes. Promoter Charlie Laye came into the ring and counted George pinned and raised Berry's hand. At about that time, George got to his feet and clobbered Berry from the rear, knocking both he and Laye to the canvas. Roberts chose that moment to return to the ring again and, when George fell atop Berry's inert form, he counted him out.

Saved From "Chicken" Death

Washington, D. C.- Joe King, 8, who hanged himself from a tree to prove to a playmate that he wasn't "chicken" is alive because of the efforts of two service-men. The two boys tied a 2-foot length of clothesline to a limb 7 feet from the ground and tied the other end around Joe's neck. Joe let himself down the tree trunk and then swung free, suspended by the neck. Then when he tried to get back to the trunk, he couldn't reach it. His companion tried to reach him but couldn't and a neighbor called Joe's mother, whose screams attracted a Marine who cut the boy down. Another serviceman, Leon A. Diggs, 32, colored, applied artificial respiration to the boy for fifteen minutes before he revived.

It took an hour to recover his body.

NEWS FOR VETERANS

World War II veterans under the original GI Bill were reminded by the Veterans Administration that July 25, 1956, marks the end of the program for all but a handful of them.

Even though a veteran may still have unused GI training entitlement at that time, or even though he may be in the middle of a course, his GI training payments will come to an end on July 25, 1956.

VA advised World War II GI trainees to keep the deadline in mind, in working out plans for the remainder of their training programs.

The small group of veterans exempt from the July 25, 1956 deadline are those who enlisted or re-enlisted under the Armed Forces Voluntary Recruitment Act, between October 6, 1945, and October 5, 1946. These veterans have nine years from the end of their enlistment or re-enlistment to wind up their GI training.

The 1956 deadline applies only to World War II trainees, VA emphasized. It does not apply to veterans training under the Korean GI Bill.

During the 11 years the World War II GI Bill has been in effect, more than 7,800,000 veterans — or half of all who served in World War II — received some form of training.

The program reached its peak at the end of 1947, when more than 2,500,000 World War II veterans crowded into classrooms, and on-the - job training establishments throughout the nation.

At the present time, the program has dropped to one-twentieth of its former size, with 138,000 veterans still in training.

Dr. Carl Collins Addresses Club

"International Understanding" was the subject of a talk given by Dr. Carl A. Collins Jr. to the members of the Clover Hill Home Demonstration Club on Tuesday evening.

Dr. Collins, who from incidents in his work as a Chaplain during two wars, saw the deep need of nations understanding each other, quoted from a book he had read which said "There are no islands anymore." Statements from prominent British and Americans were read by the speaker, showing how little we who are supposed to be friends, really understand each other.

Dr. Collins said, "Democracy calls for, first, Intelligence, Righteousness and Social Justice."

In developing these points he made it plain that he believed all others hinged on the third point and that if we wished to live as brothers in a peacful world we must practice the Golden Rule.

Mrs. Frances Conner, president, presided over the meeting, which was held at the home of Mrs. Vernelle Mitchell, with Mesdames T. J. Conner and A. F. Godsey serving as co-hostesses. In the absence of the secretary, the minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. J. L. Torrence. Mrs. B. G. Anderson urged the club to send two delegates to the Institute of Rural Affairs at Blacksburg in July.

A motion was made and carried that the club sponsor a "Bake Sale" to help defray expenses of the delegates. Mrs. Bernard Richardson, program development leader, asked that suggestions on the program for 1956 be presented at the next meeting.

A demonstration on "Household Pest Control" was given by Mrs. John Tweedy. A social hour followed, during which refreshments were served by the hostesses.

To The Citizens of Appomattox County, Va.:

It has come to my attention that certain supporters of my opponent have spread the rumor that I attended a Republican Dalton-for-Governor meeting in Appomattox when Mr. Dalton was running for Governor in 1953. This is a malicious falsehood. I have never attended a Republican meeting. I am a Democrat and voted for and supported Governor Stanley when he was opposed by Mr. Dalton for Governor. If any Republican meeting was held in the County, I know nothing about it. Like many other citizens of the Town of Appomattox I was stopped on the street by Mr. Richard (Dick) Wingfield and introduced to Mr. Dalton when he was in the Town of Appomattox but I held no conversation with Mr. Dalton nor was I in his presence over several minutes. I hope the people of this County will refuse to listen to the rumor mongers who are attempting to deceive them and thus influence their vote by false statements.

As a business man I realize that many times the rural people of our County are unable to get to Town except on Saturdays. If elected Treasurer, I shall keep the Treasurer's Office open on Saturday afternoons so as to render better service to our people and serve you at your convenience.

Thomas Terrill Martin

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

I have been contacted by many Appomattox citizens requesting information from me, as Chairman of the Republican Party of Appomattox County, as to certain activity during the Governor's campaign in 1953, when Senator Dalton was running against Governor Stanley. For their information I would like to say that Mr. Dalton came to the Town of Appomattox during the campaign and visited almost all of the business establishments in the town. He was introduced to a number of citizens, not only in the business establishments but on the streets of our town. No Republican meeting was held while he was in town and any rumor that Mr. Thomas Terrill Martin attended a Dalton-for-Governor meeting in the Town of Appomattox is false. As Chairman of the Republican Party of Appomattox County for many years, I know that Mr. Martin has never been affiliated with the Republican Party.

Respectfully,

J. T. ALMOND,
Chairman of Republican Party of Appomattox County.
